Natalie Ruelle Bio

Natalie began her career in the beauty industry over 20 years ago as a Freelance Makeup Artist. Realizing her passion was helping women look their best, she went on to become a Regional Trainer with Sebastian International for the Trucco Cosmetic line. She traveled extensively, training and developing makeup artists in New York, Phoenix & Atlanta. This position eventually brought her to Los Angeles, where she continued building her cosmetics career. She represented top cosmetic lines such as Estee Lauder, Bobbi Brown, Chanel, Yves St. Laurent, Prescriptives, Laura Mercier and Lancome as an Account Executive, Trainer, Cosmetic Manager and Fragrance Buyer.

While in Los Angeles, Natalie was also involved in acting. She worked in theatre, independent films and also earned her Screen Actors Guild card by being featured in the TV show, Baywatch. She continues to do small acting roles locally in Philadelphia. She has recently been in M.Night Shyamalan's film "The Happening" with Mark Wahlberg and John Leguizamo.

Natalie's newest venture is the opening of "MIX makeup studio". She has her own makeup line, which incorporates the custom blending of lipsticks and lipgloss for the ultimate in client services. Natalie also does Training and Seminars on Skin Care, Makeup Application and Image Consultation.
